2) Shweta Gaur Makeup Academy

It is regarded as India's second-best Makeup Academy.

The one-month training program for cosmetics artists and hair stylists costs approximately Rs 160,000.

Therefore, its costs are lower than those of Yashika Makeovers courses fees, which cost two lakhs.

This course's makeup classes typically consist of thirty to forty students, which frequently leads to fewer interactions between the teacher and students and subpar learning comprehension.

Students may also find employment or internships here that will benefit their future professions after completing their degrees.
